ELK GROVE – Today, Councilmember Darren Suen’s re-election campaign announced that California Lieutenant Governor Eleni Kounalakis, Congressman Ami Bera, Senator Richard Pan and Assemblymember Jim Cooper have endorsed Darren Suen for Elk Grove City Council, District 1.

“I know Darren will fight for good-paying jobs and relief for families struggling to make ends meet due to the pandemic,” said Lieutenant Governor Eleni Kounalakis. “I am proud to stand with Darren Suen for Elk Grove City Council.”

“Elk Grove needs trusted and established leaders like Darren to help steer our community through these challenging times,” said Congressman Ami Bera. “It’s an honor to support Darren Suen for Elk Grove City Council.”

“I am pleased to endorse Darren Suen for re-election to the Elk Grove City Council. Darren advocates for greater transparency and accountability in City government,” said Senator Richard Pan. “I am proud to represent Elk Grove in the State Senate, and Darren has been a valued champion for Elk Grove. His leadership is needed as the City faces the challenges brought by COVID. Join me in supporting Darren Suen for City Council.”

“As Elk Grove’s founding Mayor and a 15-year councilmember, I understand what Elk Grove needs, and so does Darren Suen,” said Assemblymember Jim Cooper. “Darren knows how to create a sustainable city with more jobs and smart transportation options. He will help small businesses grow and create an economy that works for everyone. Darren’s qualifications and experience are unmatched and that is why I support re-electing Darren Suen to the Elk Grove City Council.”

“It’s an honor to have the support of all four of these very prominent elected officials,” said Darren Suen. “They are some of California’s hardest working public servants and we all share a strong commitment of fighting for working-families and equality for all. As your Councilmember, I am committed to making sure Elk Grove comes out of this pandemic stronger than ever and that we represent ALL of Elk Grove. This is OUR City.”

California’s Lieutenant Governor Eleni Kounalakis, Congressman Ami Bera, Senator Richard Pan and Assemblymember Jim Cooper join a long list of individuals and organizations supporting Darren Suen’s re-election campaign.
